

OLA Academy

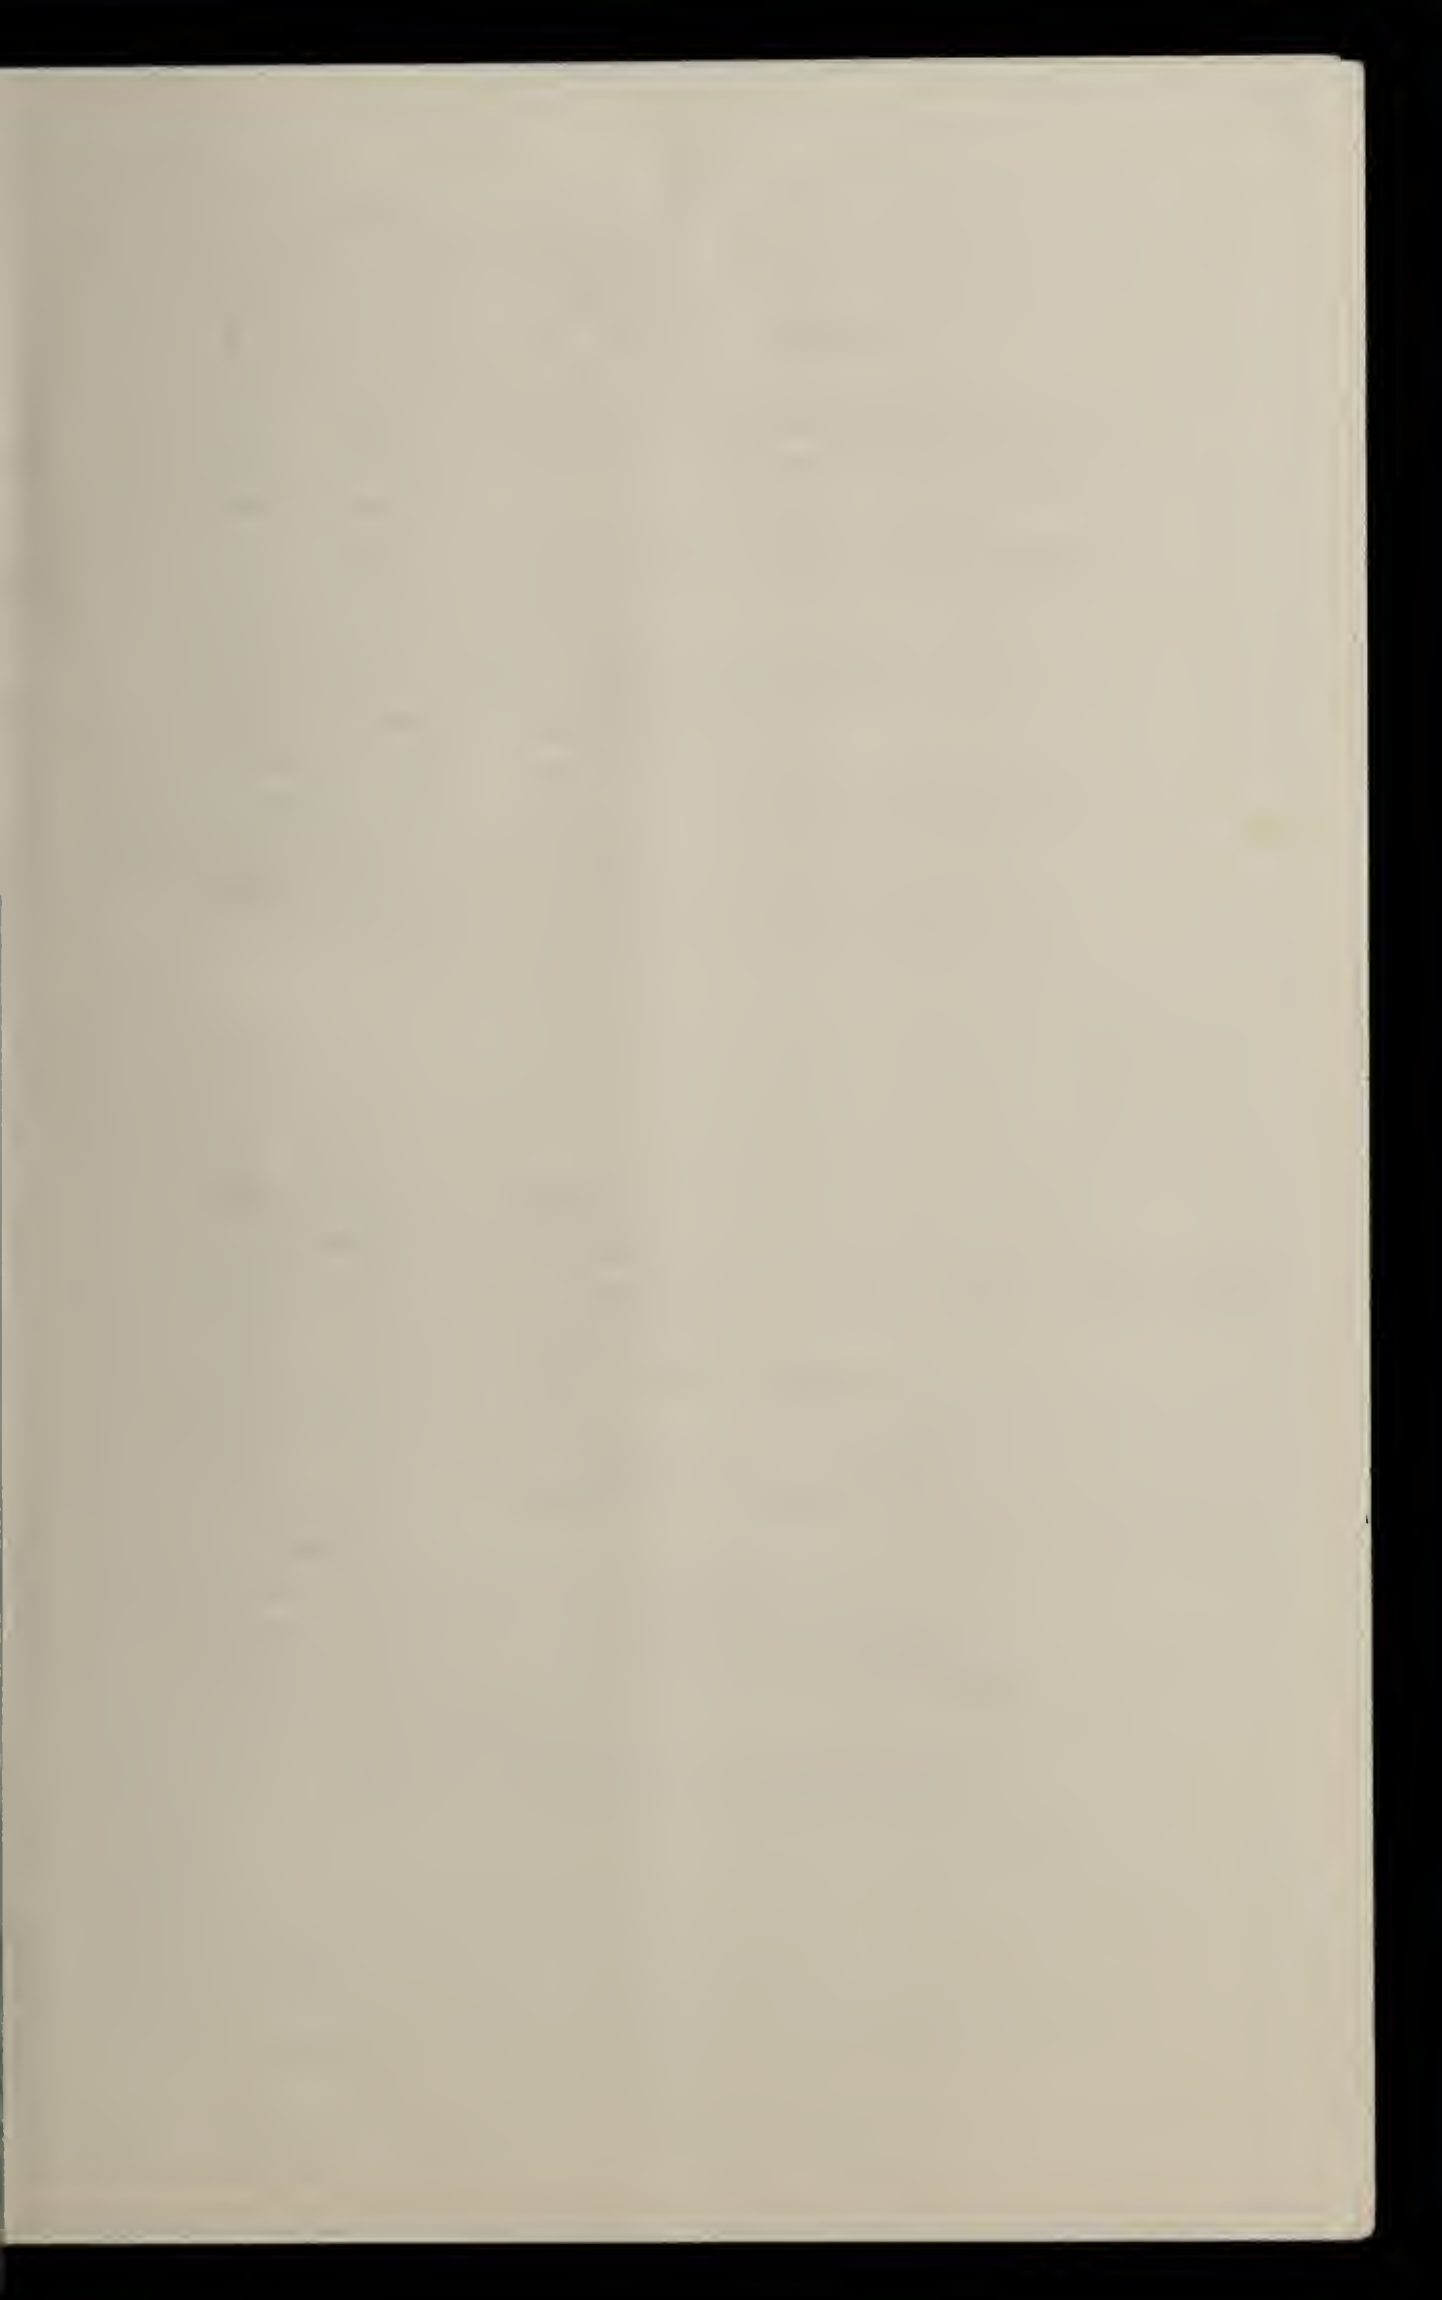

Ten Year Reunion

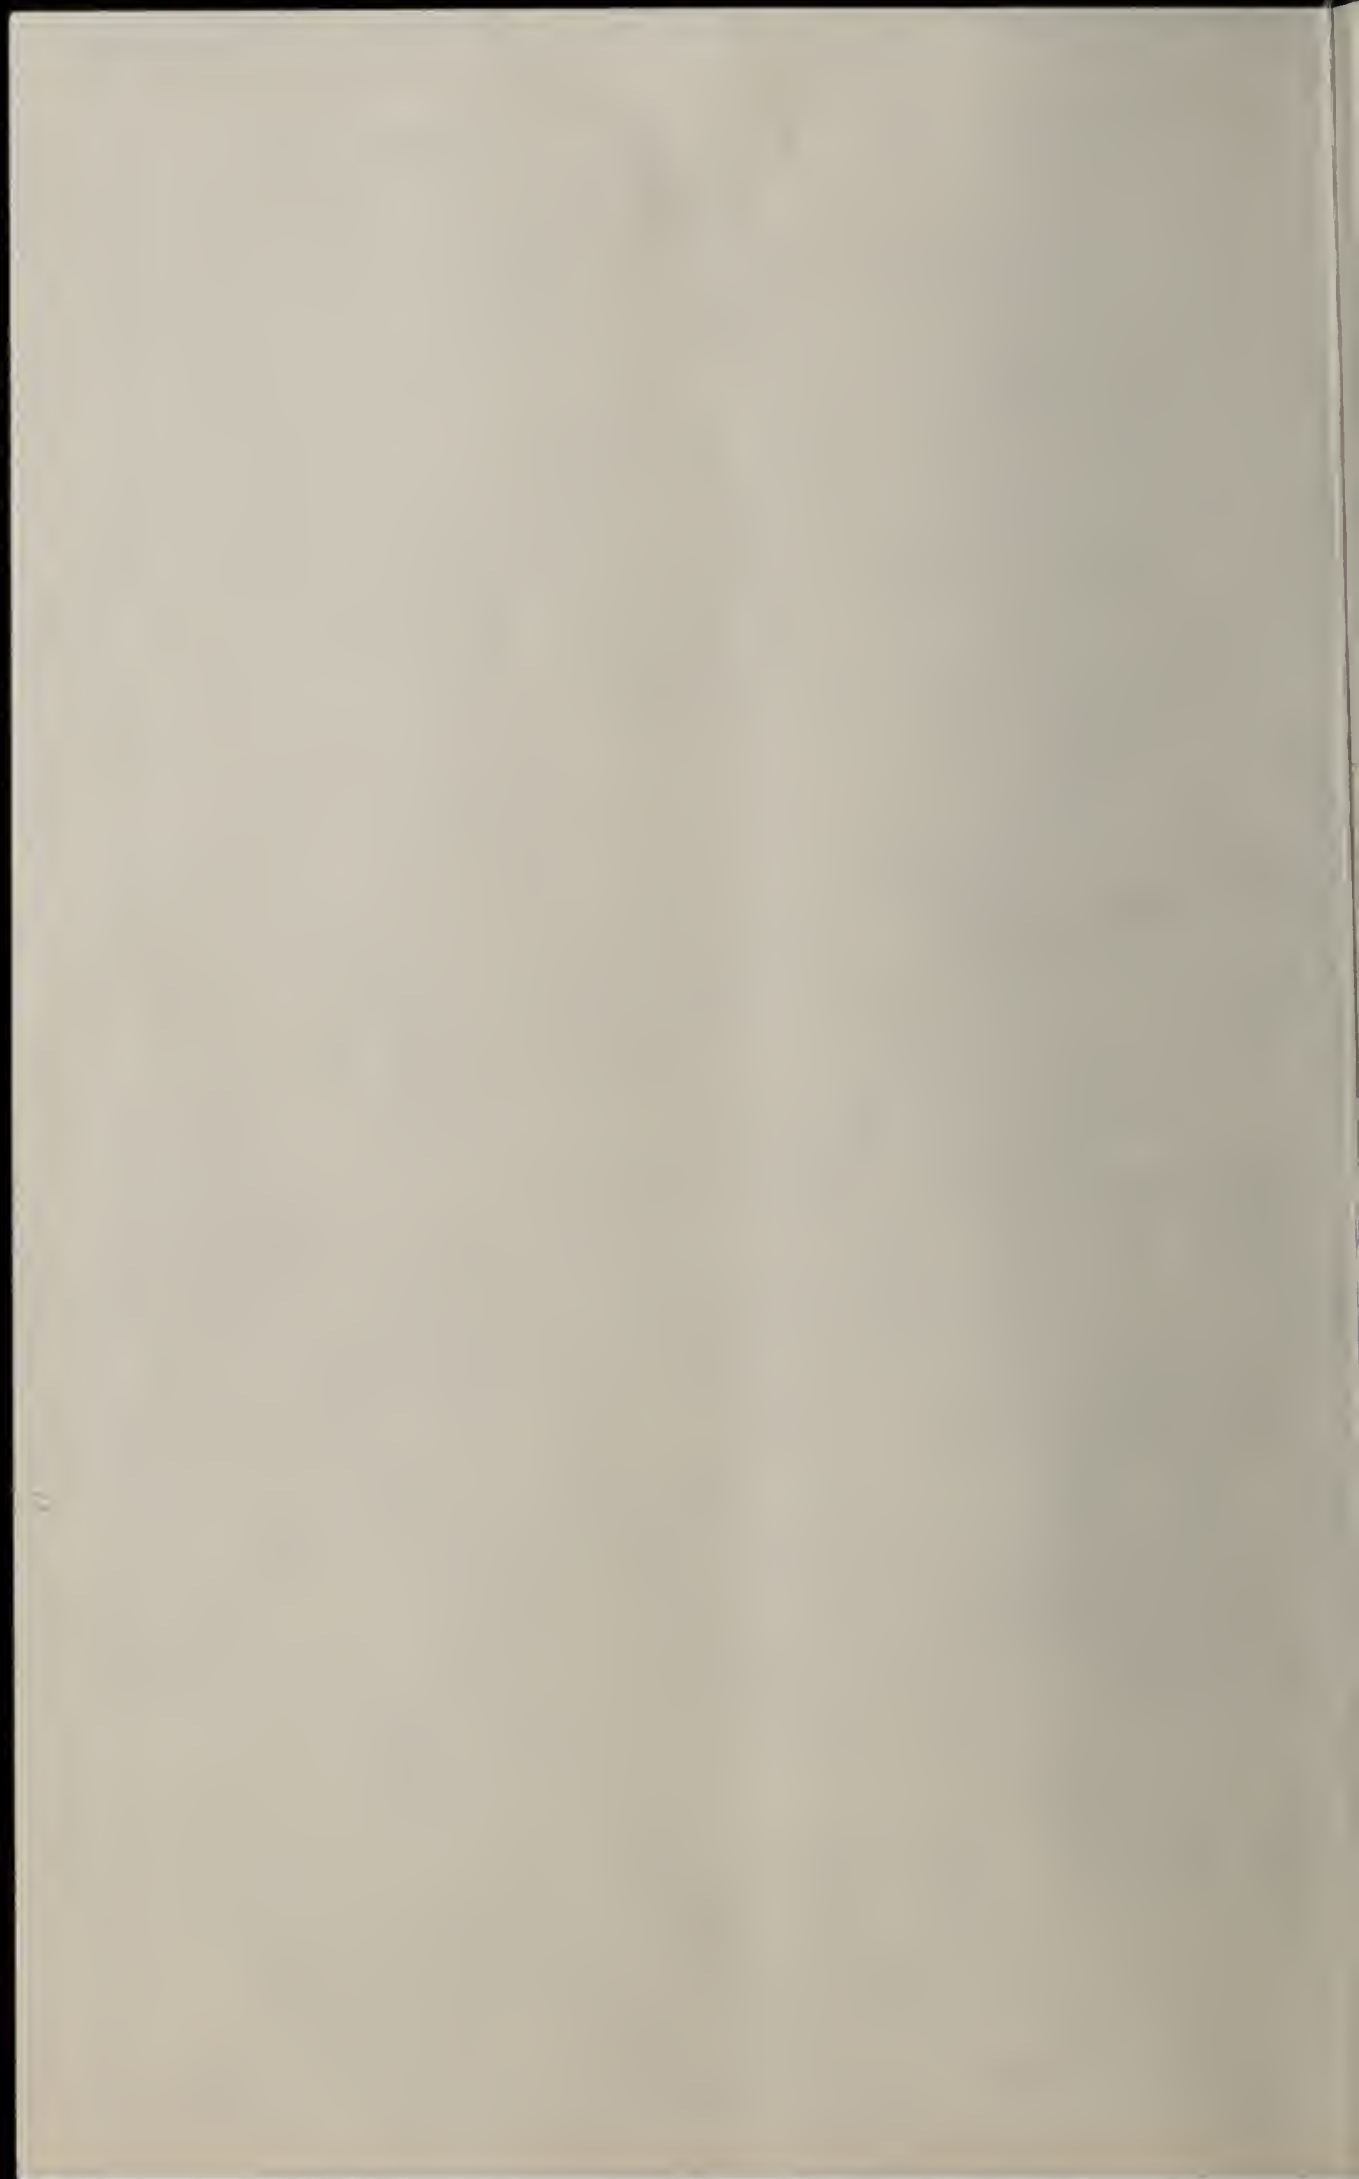

MOUNTAIN LAUREL RESTAURANT

JUNE 18, 1977

1967 - 1977

67 was...

A pale yellow rose...

Moss green ribbons...

A tiny, little maple tree...

'The Sound of Music'...

Not the smartest, but warm hearted...

St. Jude-Patron of hopeless cases!...

Scrooge and Co...

The last of the navy blue uniforms...

Cool and quiet?...

Pigtails...and puns...

And more puns and more puns...

Off to Misquamicut...

Yes Sister, but...

A Christmas Ball...A Farewell Prom...

'67 was 'Today'...

And today is already tomorrow...

77 is...

Ten years later...

A liberated woman...

Still not the smartest, but warm hearted...

Babies and Diapers...

Soap operas and game shows...

Working 8 to 5...

St. Jude still hard at work...

Checking accounts, income tax and Master Charge...

From Johnson to Carter...

Class rings to wedding rings...

Latin lines to supermarket lines...

'77 is Today...

And today is almost tomorrow...

THE ANGELICAN

1967

Our Lady of the Angels Academy
Enfield, Connecticut
Volume XXIII

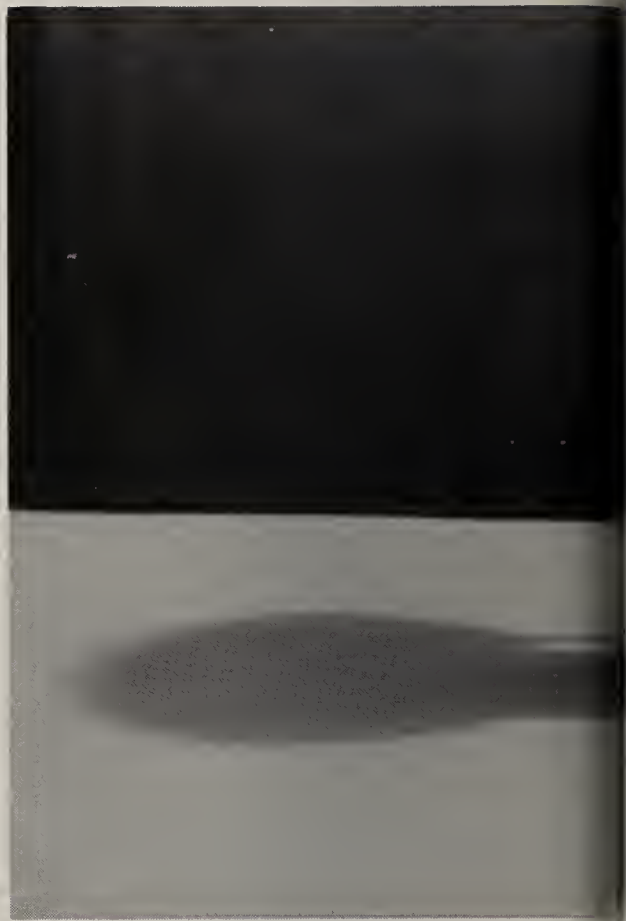

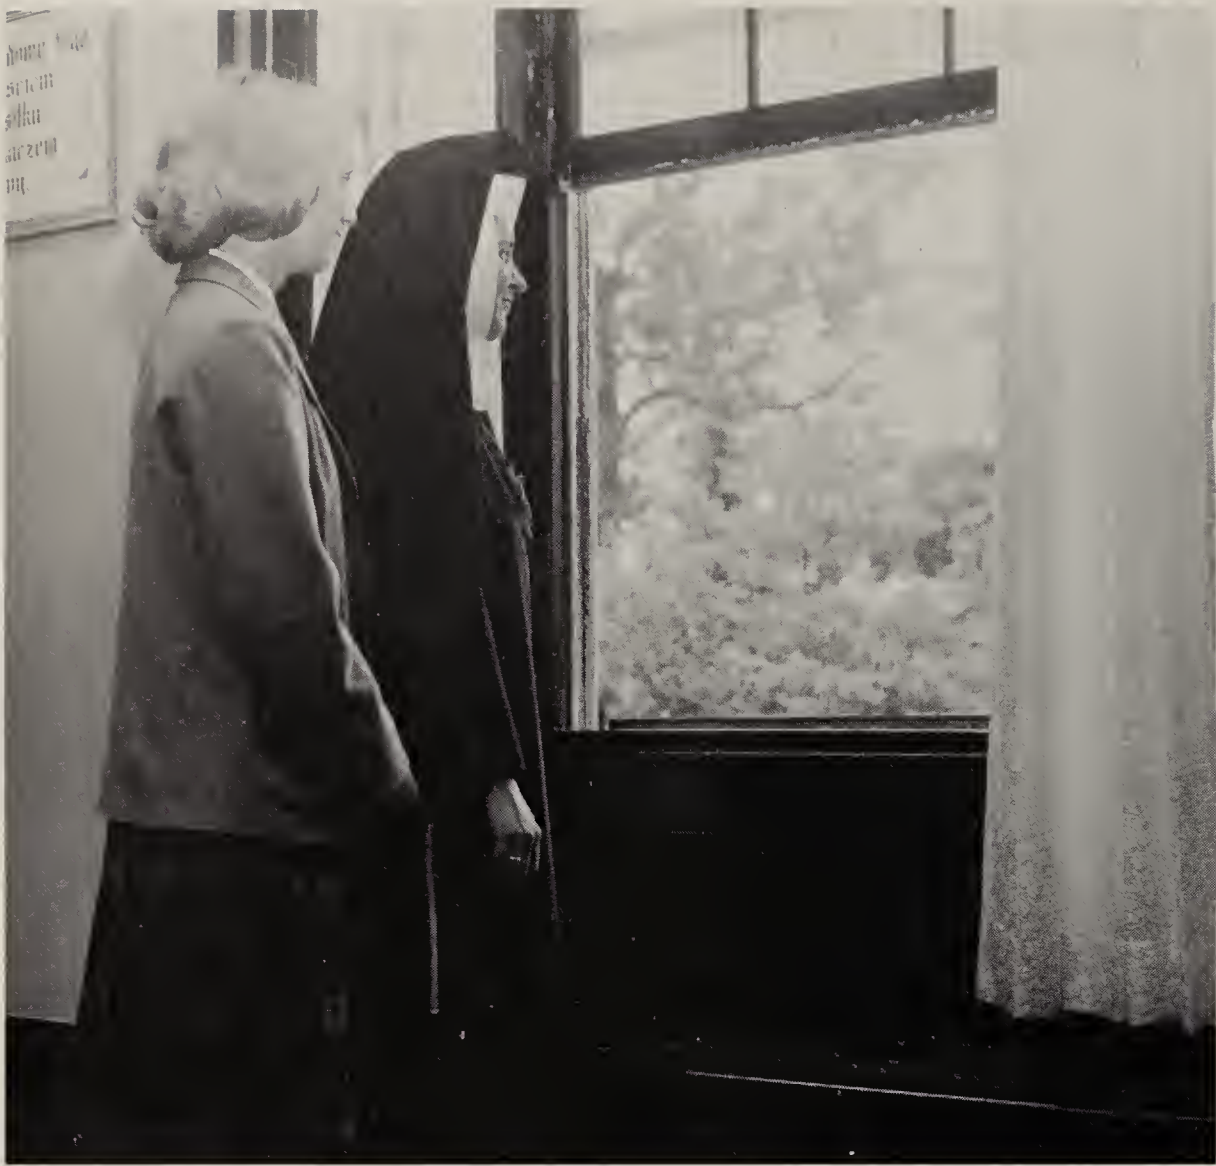

Responding to the loving design
Of the Lord
We have become a family.
To open up the mind and
To communicate with
Each one herself,
Yet each a part of every other.

Confronted by our limitations,
Toward evergrowing awareness of life,
And ever widening dimensions
Of involvement
We seek community.
To share our goals . . . responsibilities . . .
Efforts . . . interests . . .
Defeats . . . joys and Accomplishments.

Fatima is a moment
That is not
Past.
Fatima is a mother
Eternally reaching out
In concern
To her children
Who stand and walk and Fall,
Who laugh and sing and Forget
To speak with their Father.
Fatima
Is not a gentle
Reminder.
It is the pleading
Of a mother's Tears.
Do not let them fall
Forever.

Stranger, pause and look;
 From the dust of ages
 Lift this little book,
 Turn the tattered pages,
 Read me, do not let me die!
 Search the fading letters, finding
 Steadfast in the broken binding
 All that once was I!

Millay

Together
Let us battle
Against forces
That limit man:
Ignorance,
Selfishness,
Distrust.

Together
Let us construct God's Community,
With
Love and Understanding.

MOTHER MARY VITERBIA C.S.S.F.
President of Our Lady of the Angels Academy

To lift a heart
To the heights of Understanding . . .
To encourage a spirit
To reach out
And meet
Life's challenge . . .
To extend a mind
So that it may find
Within itself
The strength and courage
To live . . .
To teach . . . to learn
To share the knowledge of His life . . .
Is education.

SISTER MARY PRESENTIA

. . . with the grace of office to exhort, to direct and to guide

A man's worth is measured not in terms of what he does or what he has, but what he is . . .

Ideals in politics are never realized, but the pursuit of them determines history.

SISTER MARY CASIMERE

. . . with her finger on the pulse of history and society

SISTER MARY ANTOINETTE

. . . with painstaking devotion to her task of teaching about the world of business

SISTER MARY AMABILIS

. . . with Hellenic aspiration which finds its echo in Caesar's battles and Virgil's epic

For behind the spontaneous joy of life there is always a mechanism to keep it going.

SISTER MARY ANTONIA

. . . with the fullness of drive to give to the study of Spanish a modern flavor

SISTER MARY EVELYN

. . . with the joyousness of song and with eager eyes to distant Paris

There is no happiness except in the realization that we have accomplished something.

SISTER MARY CLEMENTIA

. . . with a rewarding involvement in mathematical figures, sets, and numbers

SISTER MARY CONSOLATA

. . . with an earnest endeavor to project truth from the pages of the Bible and the Gospel

Good teachers are those who can understand those not very good at explaining, and explain it to those not very good at understanding.

SISTER MARY DOLORIA

. . . with the epic vision enfolding all mankind of all times

MRS. EDMUND KROCHALIS

. . . with pursuing interest for Irish literature, folklore, and legend

A great teacher is not simply one who imparts knowledge to his students but one who awakens their interest in it; and makes them eager to pursue it for themselves.

FATHER ARTHUR FINAN

. . . with advice, as an ambassador of the WORD, in the light of the Second Vatican Council

SISTER MARY FELICIA

. . . with unboundless energy for the cause of ecumenism

The teacher who walks in the shadow of the temple, among his followers, gives not of his wisdom but rather of his faith and his lovingness.

SISTER MARY HILARY

. . . with the performance of an artist who gladly creates

SISTER MARY JUSTINE

. . . with a genial gleam in her eyes, she administers the inevitable testing demanding long range planning

No one doubts in every person existing there is a special potency for some beautiful function which no other person embodies so highly.

MRS. DORIS GAMBINO

. . . with the charm and vitalizing energy
for physical fitness

MRS. ROBERT BREEDING

. . . with the grace of the healer's touch and warmth of a friend

We live not in ourselves, but we become a portion of that around us.

SISTER MARY PONTIA

. . . with an appreciation of and an interest in life through books

SISTER MARY BERNADETTE

. . . with the hands of a skilled biologist at work in nature's ever producing laboratory

SISTER MARY LEONIA

. . . with an inquisitive mind directed in the realms of time and space

. . . And thus we are absorbed, and this is life.

Childhood . . . a vanishing memory
Yesterday . . . so many years ago
Tomorrow . . . soon passes.

This is a new time
A time of seeking life
By sharing
A child's smile . . . Understanding . . . Rain . . .
Life itself
This is not the time
For searching
Vainly in the past
Nor foolishly
In the future.
This is the time
For living.

'67 is . . .
A pale yellow rose . . .
Moss green ribbons . . .
A tiny, little maple tree . . .
'The Sound of Music' . . .
Not the smartest, but warm hearted . . .
St. Jude—Patron of hopeless cases! . . .
Scrooge and Co. . . .
The last of the navy blue uniforms . . .
Cool and quiet? . . .
Pigtails . . . and puns . . .
And more puns and more puns . . .
Off to Misquamicut . . .
Yes Sister, but . . .
A Christmas Ball . . . A Farewell Prom . . .
'67 is . . . 'Today'
And today is almost tomorrow . . .

TODAY

Today while the blossoms still cling to the vine,
I'll taste your strawberries; I'll drink your sweet wine.
A million tomorrows shall all pass away,
Ere I forget all the joy that is mine today.

I'll be a dandy and I'll be a rover;
You'll know who I am by the song that I sing.
I'll feast at your table; I'll sleep in your clover.
Who cares what the morrow shall bring?

Today while the blossoms still cling to the vine,
I'll taste your strawberries; I'll drink your sweet wine.
A million tomorrows shall all pass away,
Ere I forget all the joy that is mine today.

Can't be contented with yesterday's glory,
I can't live on promises winter to spring—
Today is my moment and now is my story;
I'll laugh and I'll cry and I'll sing.

Today while the blossoms still cling to the vine,
I'll taste your strawberries; I'll drink your sweet wine.
A million tomorrows shall all pass away,
Ere I forget all the joy that is mine today.

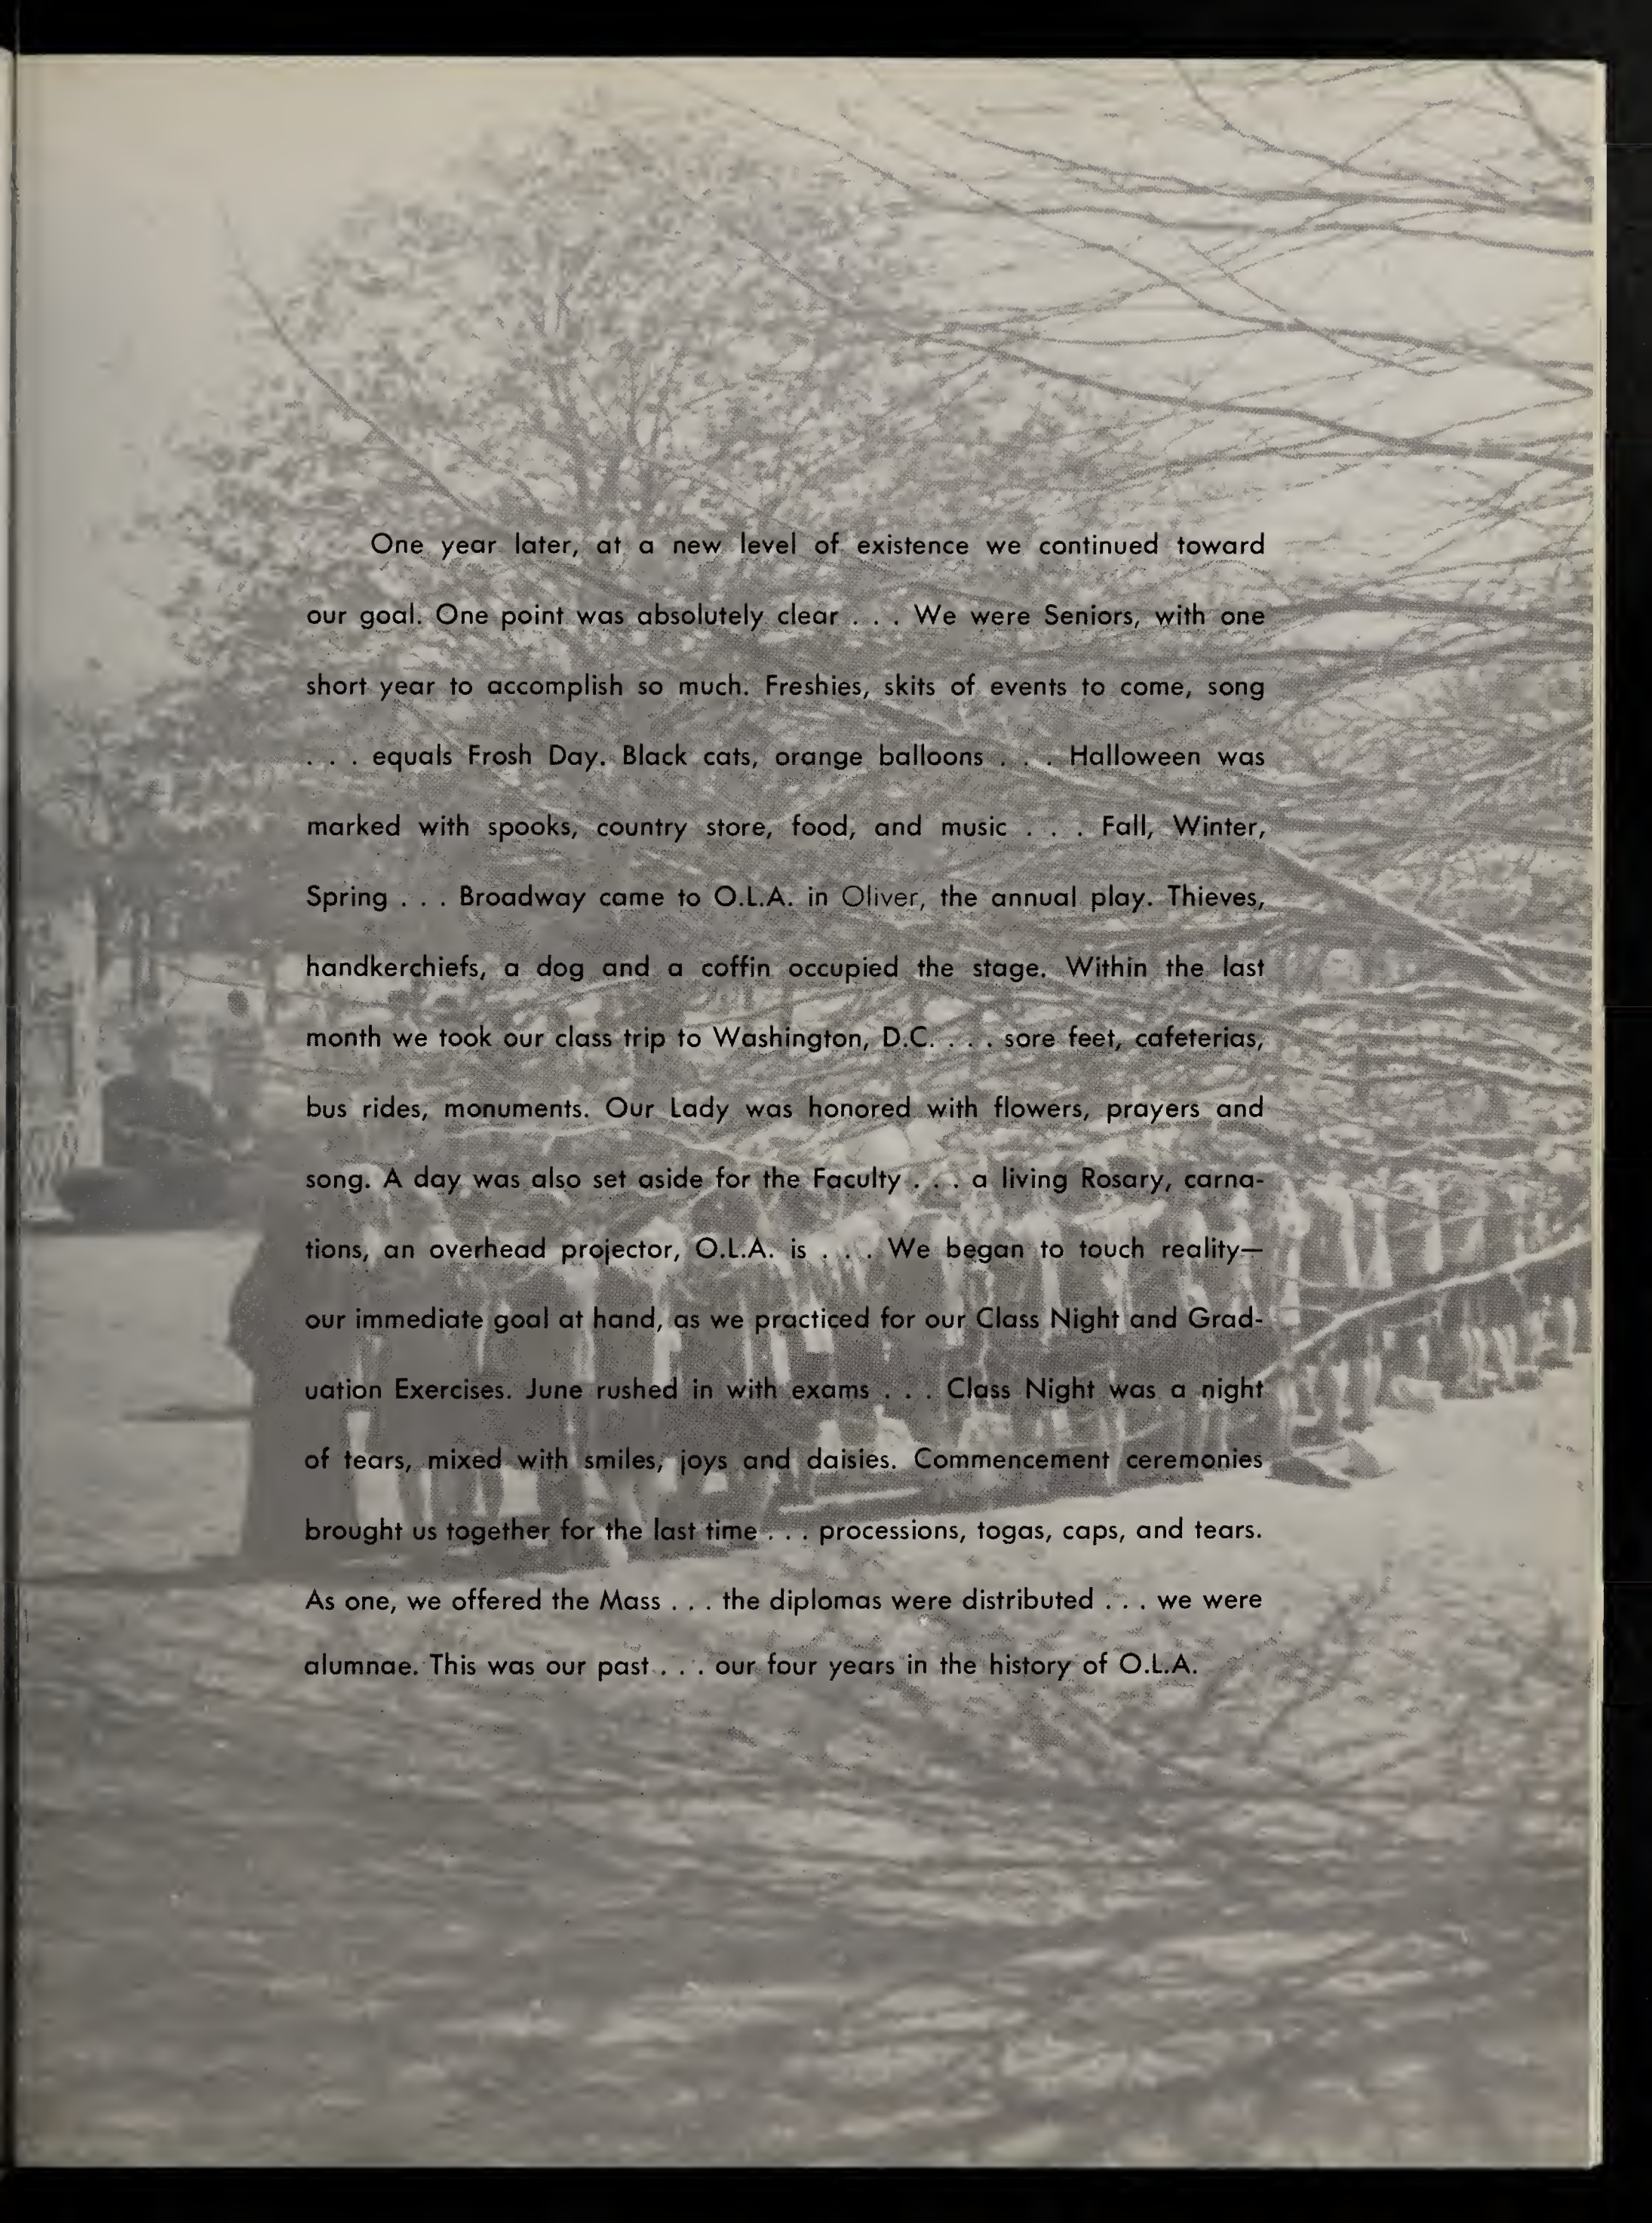

IN THE MAINSTREAM . . .

. . . Just four years ago we entered O.L.A. As one grows older, the years pass—or seem to pass—more rapidly. We were little sisters, alive, officially welcomed to the Academy . . . Shocked at the death of President Kennedy . . . Renewed of soul during our first Retreat . . . Jubilant at our Ring Day production, The Trapp Family Sings . . . Terrified at our final exams . . . Awed by Class Night.

One year later . . . our intentions were not changed: They were exactly the same . . . Moving, growing . . . NEDT tests . . . Preliminary SAT . . . Vivaciously performing our Christmas play, A Christmas Carol. Faster, faster, the time passed. A tree was planted . . . Guns were fired . . . Practical jokes were played on April 1st . . . Tears were shed as our Big Sisters graduated.

One year ago, we did not have any intention of stopping that motion, of stunting that growth. By court order we expanded the growth of others . . . we adopted the Class of 1969. Feminine, elegant and nervous we attended our first Christmas Ball. Ring Day was our day . . . Mantillas, yellow roses, green ribbon . . . a talent show and breakfast in our honor. Living, sleeping, eating . . . A Grinder Sale was held. Speeches, awards, daisies . . . the chain of Academy heritage is passed down to us.

One year later, at a new level of existence we continued toward our goal. One point was absolutely clear . . . We were Seniors, with one short year to accomplish so much. Freshies, skits of events to come, song . . . equals Frosh Day. Black cats, orange balloons . . . Halloween was marked with spooks, country store, food, and music . . . Fall, Winter, Spring . . . Broadway came to O.L.A. in Oliver, the annual play. Thieves, handkerchiefs, a dog and a coffin occupied the stage. Within the last month we took our class trip to Washington, D.C. . . . sore feet, cafeterias, bus rides, monuments. Our Lady was honored with flowers, prayers and song. A day was also set aside for the Faculty . . . a living Rosary, carnations, an overhead projector, O.L.A. is . . . We began to touch reality—our immediate goal at hand, as we practiced for our Class Night and Graduation Exercises. June rushed in with exams . . . Class Night was a night of tears, mixed with smiles, joys and daisies. Commencement ceremonies brought us together for the last time . . . processions, togas, caps, and tears. As one, we offered the Mass . . . the diplomas were distributed . . . we were alumnae. This was our past . . . our four years in the history of O.L.A.

Though some have changed,
All these places had their moments,
In my life I've loved them all . . .
I know I'll never lose affection

We are many; we are one.

Responsibility is . . .
Action—a response
To growing maturity in thought
Freedom—to bear the gift of life
With an uplifted heart
Knowledge—of the eternal principles
Love—constantly seeking to reunite
The unending family of man.

Responsibility is the force that Changes laughing youth into
An adult
Who still smiles and yet is no longer a child.

Responsibility is a flame . . .
Burning
Flickering
Lighting man's existence with its achievements.

OPEN HOUSE AND EDUCATION WEEK

It depends on education to open the gates which lead to virtue or vice, to happiness or misery.

The secret of education lies in respecting the pupil.

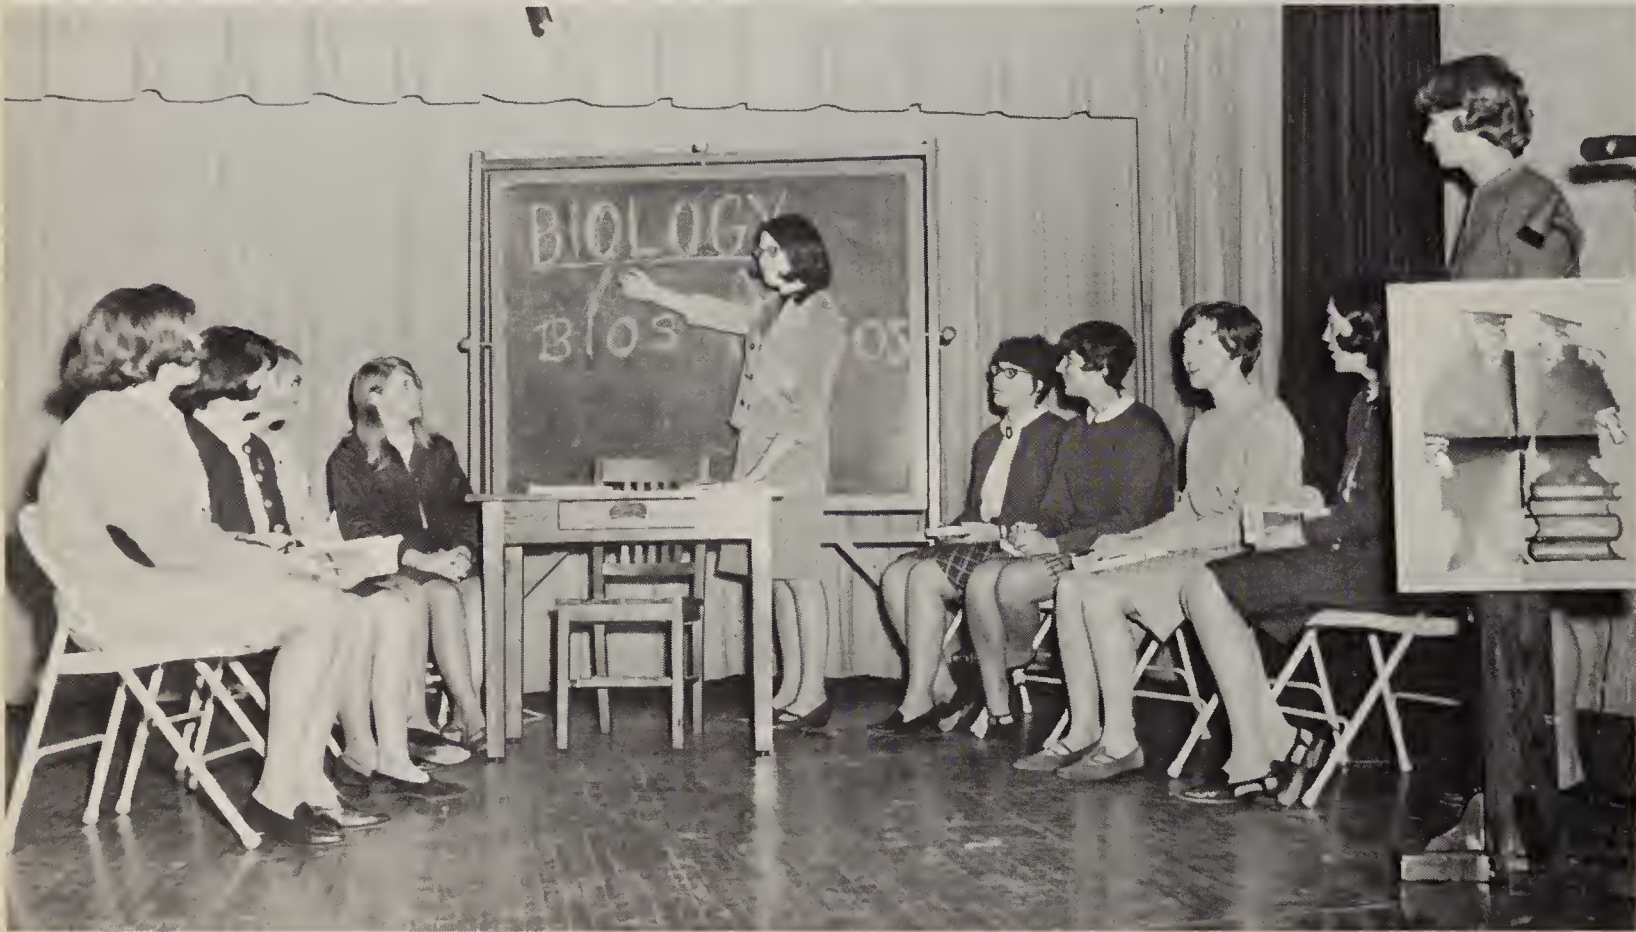

*'Tis education forms the common mind
Just as the twig is bent the tree's inclined.*

The educated are to the uneducated as the living are to the dead.

We are the young, the inheritors of today, the reason for tomorrow.

When you educate a man, you educate an individual; When you educate a woman, you educate a whole family.

FATHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET

My Dad, now there is a man . . .

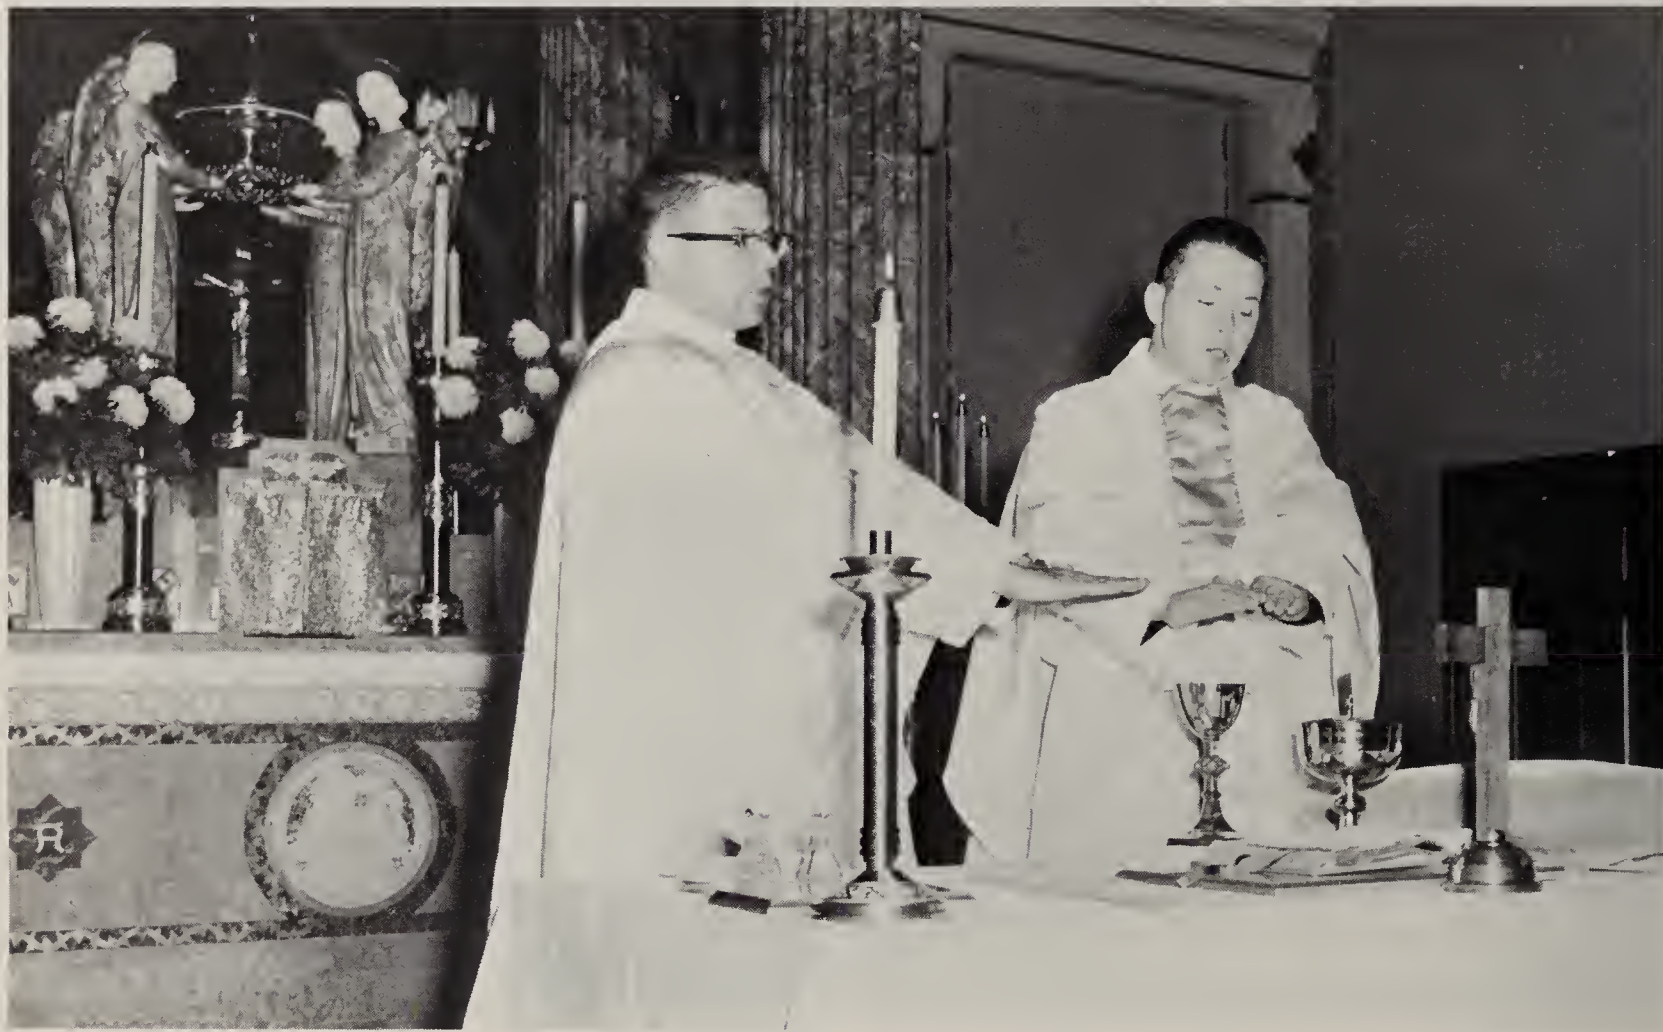

How many hopes and fears, how many ardent wishes and anxious apprehensions, are twisted together in the threads that connect the parent and the child.

ANNUAL RETREAT

O Lord, who lends me life, lend me a heart replete with thankfulness.

The world at this very instant waits for our thoughts born in silence.

What you have to attempt—to be yourself. What you have to pray for—to become a mirror in which, according to the degree of purity of heart you have attained, the greatness of life will be reflected.

'T WAS AN OLA CHRISTMAS...

Strong hands to weak, old hands to young, around the Christmas board, touch hands.

*I love the Christmas-tide and yet,
I notice this, each year I live;
I always like the gifts I get,
But how I love the gifts I give!*

*Christmas itself may be called into question
If carried so far it creates indigestion.*

*And I do come home at Christmas.
We all do, or we all should. We all come home, or ought to come home, for a short holiday—the longer, the better—from the great boarding-school, where we are forever working at our arithmetical slates, to take, and give a rest.*

*At Christmas play and make good

PROMS

FACULTY DAY

I am a part of all that I have touched and that has touched me, which is itself a cumulation of what I have been becoming.

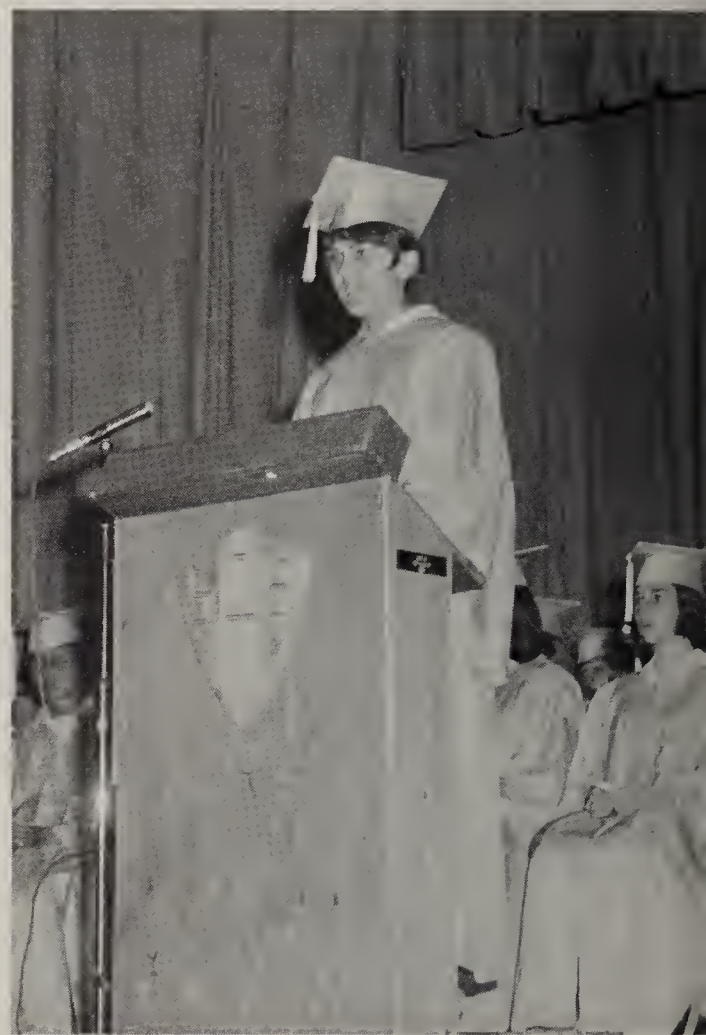

*May each day of your life be a good day,
May the Lord always watch over you,
And may all your dreams turn to wishes,
And may all of your wishes come true . . .*

The true teacher defends his pupils against his own personal influence. He inspires self-distrust. He guides their eyes from himself to the spirit that quickens him.

CLASS NIGHT

*And if they ask why ye smile in sorrow
Tell them you grieve
For your eyes see today
And tell them you smile
For your heart sees tomorrow.*

The rose has but a summer reign, the daisy never dies . . .

GRADUATION

When you are sorrowful look deep into your heart and you shall find it is only that which has given you joy that is giving you sorrow.

*Today is my moment and now is my story
I'll laugh and I'll cry and I'll sing . . .*

Explanation of cover design

Aware of the significance of our lives as members of an ever-widening family, we have chosen the community as the theme of our endeavor. The abstract rose with a single continuous stem represents how the complexity of human relationships blend into a unique togetherness and grow from a single source: God. The colors, moss green and pale yellow, belong to the class of 1967.
